CRUISING THE CONTINENT

One of the greatest pastimes available to man is that of cruising. Aside from the many rewards it offers in terms of visions of beauty, of material for fantasy, and of the real thing, it is a hobby that can be pursued at almost any time, in any location and with an absolute minimum of equipment (!). As a matter of fact, while you look through these pages, you are pursuing one form of cruising, and it could be that someone else is busily cruising you. Everybody's doing it. Enjoy!
